Deacon Jeff's Corner

A very blessed and happy Mother's Day to all the moms today! Moms are special in so many ways (so are dads!). So many times a mother's touch not only makes a difference but also stays in one's memory forever.

I know people have heard my story before, but today I offer a slight twist. I lost my mother due to a heart attack on December 12, 1987, just as Christmas was approaching. I will never forget the phone call I received from my sister with the news, as well as the deep sadness I felt for months following. There is not a day that passes that I don't miss my parents in some way.

A few years later, I began a new job and the receptionist/secretary at my new employer was a 62-year-old sweetheart, named Mary, whom I was immediately attracted to as another "mom" type to me. Over the past 35 years, through job changes, my ordination, and my ministry, Mary always followed me and stayed connected with me. Our conversations and meetings with each other are just like the moments I had with my own Mom; I always felt special around her!

The past few years, Mary's age was catching up with her, and our conversations were less and much shorter either on the phone or in-person. The last few months were particularly difficult and in between visits, I would receive updates from her daughters (Mary had 7 children, and every one of them are just like her – wonderful!). Her 98th birthday was on April 15th, and I stopped at St. Paul Home in Kaukauna to see her, only to find she was at the weekly Mass. I walked in and very briefly gave her a hug and a kiss, told her I loved her, and left so as to not disturb the Mass.

Mary passed away on Saturday, April 26, eleven days following her birthday, and slept away the previous 24 hours to finally see the face of her Savior, Jesus. As the homilist for her funeral Mass, it was so difficult to control my emotions – you know me...

Just a side note: Mary's middle name is Elizabeth, the same as my wife, Mary. I suspect that was a part of God's plan, too!

I treasured our relationship and now am praying to her, just like my parents, to help me do God's work here. I have no doubt the three of them are doing just that!

SPONSORED BY THE HELPING HANDS COMMITTEE

In partnership with parents, guardians, and the parish, we seek to help children deepen their relationship with Jesus, understand their Catholic faith, and participate in our Prince of Peace Catholic Community.

2025 CHILDREN'S COLLECTION

At Prince of Peace, we have a separate children's collection at offertory time during Mass. The money from the children's collection is dispersed twice a year in Spring and Fall. The overall goal is to teach children to look for needs in our community and in our world. The children learn about the organizations and take part in the process of determining where the funds go. This year, the children voted for Child Life at St. Vincent Hospital and CHOW - a Cutting Hunger on Weekends Program.

Child Life is a program at HSHS St. Vincent Hospital. It is a free service available to families with children that are there for extended hospital stays, regular treatment, or short appointments. They have certified Child Life Specialists that are trained to help children and families cope with healthcare experiences.

CHOW is a Denmark program for Cutting Hunger on Weekends. It offers a food program for families in need during times when the children are out of school. They have served over 100,000 meals to students in the CHOW program. It is under the Denmark Vikings Shield Program.

"We are his people, the sheep of his flock."

Fr. Bill Hoffman

This 4th Sunday of Easter is often referred to as "Good Shepherd" Sunday; it is also the World Day of Prayer for Vocations"; and as a nation we celebrate the vocation of being "Mother".

Moms and Dads are to be "good shepherds". Priests, Deacons, and men and women religious are to be "good shepherds". We pray that those the Lord is calling to service in the church will also be "good shepherds".

Many are the popular images of Jesus the Good Shepherd with a sheep/lamb over his shoulders, grasping the front and rear legs with his hands ... expressions of his compassion, his tender care. Let us be attentive to the message it has for each one of us — we are that lamb that he is carrying on his shoulders. Jesus is supporting and holding us up.

Today we pray for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. Let us pray that many will be inspired to that love of a good shepherd; to show true love, to be willing to sacrifice other attractive options to become priest, deacons of service, religious with the heart of Jesus, willing to lay down their lives and carry his sheep on their shoulders.

Mothers are also those good shepherds when they hold a child up in their arms, holding them close to their heart ...as Jesus lifts us up and holds us in his arms. It is in our mother's love for us that we first experience that love that God has for us, and they in turn, in their complete and unconditional love for us, actually experience that love that God has for us.

Let us thank our mothers for showing us God's love. And thank you God for giving us our mothers love.

Jesus says, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them and they follow me." Likewise parents, especially moms, hope their children will hear parental voices in their consciences loud and clear when they are tempted to take crazy chances or stray from the right path. It takes effort in our world today to hear the voice of Jesus. There is so much noise going on. Why not begin your morning with this prayer: "Jesus, help me to hear your voice." And then listen.

To all mothers = Happy Mother's Day. To all shepherds = be good. To all whom the Lord is calling to the priesthood, diaconate, or religious life = Be not afraid!
