Deacon Jeff's Corner

Over the Easter season, Bishop Ricken released his instruction on the practice of Holy Communion under both kinds – the Precious Body and Precious Blood of Jesus. As not to keep you in suspense as you read this, the prayerful decision Bishop has made is to allow the Cup to be distributed on certain special occasions. Those days will follow at the end of my corner, but I hope you will read what, through the Holy Spirit, brought Bishop to this decision.

In the early days of the Church, there seemed to be a common practice of offering both Eucharistic species to the faithful. However, this practice became less frequent and virtually disappeared around the 12th century. The Council of Trent (1545-1563), among many other topics, reinforced that it was pastorally inappropriate to return to offering Holy Communion under both kinds to the lay faithful.

The Second Vatican Council (1962-1965) and the liturgical documents that followed encouraged that the Church restore the practice of offering the Precious Blood during some of the most important celebrations of the Mass within the liturgical year. What was intended to happen on particular Solemnities, Feasts and Celebrations became the norm. Many dioceses around the country, including here in Green Bay, offered the Precious Blood to everyone at every Mass.

The Catholic Doctrine of Concomitance states that when we receive Holy Communion under the form of the consecrated host, we receive the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Our Lord Jesus. The same applies to His Precious Blood. Thus, we lose nothing of Jesus' love for us in the Eucharistic form of His Precious Body.

Bishop Ricken has decided the Practice of Holy Communion under both kinds to only take place, but also be encouraged during the following liturgical celebrations, beginning with the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus (this year on June 1-2). Other celebrations include:

- *The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Nov. 23-24)
- *The Christmas Mass at Midnight
- *Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper
- *Holy Saturday Mass of the Easter Vigil
- *Divine Mercy Sunday
- *The Solemnity of Pentecost
- *The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Bishop Ricken spent extensive time in prayer and reflection to come to this decision. May we all respect his decision, given to him through the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Why should I bring my Miraculous Medal to Mass to be blessed when it is already blessed?

The medal is blessed during the ceremony, uniting it to its bearer as a sign of interior devotion. Those who carry the instituted medal are linked to a global community of devotees united in prayer. Through this institution, the medal becomes a sign of the bearer's interior devotion. Thus, wearing the medal becomes a daily commitment, fostering a connection to a global community united in devotion. The gentle chime of the medal against your clothing offers a subtle yet powerful message: you are not alone; divine grace walks beside you.

Deb Wegner-Hohensee, Pastoral Associate

Today we read about the love of God and that His love is for all of us. God's love shows no partiality. If we lead a righteous life and show fear of the Lord, God will love us. Showing fear of the Lord has always confused me. If I truly love God, then how can He be fearful? I personally always tell myself that God wants us to be in awe of Him. To honor Him and to show Him reverence, we need to be open to His commandments and to His instruction. His further command is to "Love one another as I love you." We have so many ways in our lives to show our love to one another.

When the 2024 Masters Golf Tournament was held April 11-14, Scottie Scheffler won the tournament, his second victory in three years. His entire game play was different this year as his wife was not in attendance as she was due to have their first baby in a few weeks. While the two connected throughout the week, I am sure that her absence was very notable for him. His wife, Meredith told him that she would pray for him. When Scottie was approaching the Augusta Club House after his victory, he did something quite unusual on the path. Scheffler had his caddie, Ted Scott, lead the way to the scoring area. Scottie was originally ahead of his caddie but he stopped and called him forward even waiving him forward with his cap. The PGA announcers said he did not want to make the walk alone this time. As the caddie approached Scottie, he was gently pushed forward to take the lead along the path. Scottie followed his deserving caddie the rest of the way to the clubhouse. The awesome gesture was met with thunderous applause. While no love was verbally expressed on television, the gesture sure showed the intent of the golfer who just won the acclaimed tournament by his honoring and expressing his appreciation for the help the caddie provided during the entire play of golf. At his press conference, dressed in the recognizable green jacket, Scottie was asked about what defines him the most. He described himself as a faithful guy, who believes in a Creator. He said he believes in Jesus and that what defines him the most is his faith. He further said he has been given a platform to compete and glorify God.

Jesus encourages His disciples to remain in His love and to keep His commandments, to experience joy in their life. He encourages us today with the same offering and to demonstrate through our actions as Christians, how God's love is revealed in us.
