Deacon Jeff's Corner

Since we have now entered this wonderful Easter season, there are so many different "mini events" to celebrate! The first one of these is Divine Mercy Sunday, which is always the first Sunday after Easter and the last day of the "octave" of Easter (the eight days where we celebrate every day as Easter Sunday). The Chaplet of Divine Mercy was a vision by God given to a lowly nun by the name of Sister Maria Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun now known as St. Faustina. Among the many visions and conversations she had with Jesus was the inspiration to create the Divine Mercy image of Jesus, which hangs in our church. To celebrate this annual feast, we will have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from noon-3pm today, along with the praying of the Chaplet at 3pm, which is known as the "hour of mercy".

As we need to surrender all of the trials in our life to Jesus, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is a particularly beautiful prayer St. Faustina was given by him. It is prayed many times in the 3 o'clock hour; the hour which is thought to be when Jesus died on Good Friday. This prayer is also used when a person is nearing death, and is a wonderful way of asking Jesus to accept this soul to him.

Please join us today, as we will offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation with the events of this blessed day. The more grace we receive from God, the better we can do his work!

THE SPEAKERS

Danielle Faust and Alecia Koenig were born and raised about 5 miles apart in the townships of Meeme and Liberty in Manitowoc County, WI. With three siblings each, and homes near extended family, both women have fond childhood memories. Spending time at the creek, playing barefoot outside, and exploring the woods and fields are just a few of the things they enjoyed about country living.

Growing up rurally taught both women the importance of serving others, working hard, and giving thanks for and respect to the blessings God provides. Danielle and Alecia, along with their husbands and children, each steward their own homesteads, where they raise animals, tend their ever-expanding gardens, and practice butchering and food preservation. They are increasingly drawn into God's rhythms of rural living and His designs for rural community.

Though they began their friendship at very different points in their own faith journeys, both are now devout Catholics. As members of Holy Trinity Parish in School Hill, they volunteer their time in various ways. They homeschool, homestead, and are blessed to be living rurally as neighbors.

DOUBT vs BLESSED

by Deacon Bill

On this Divine Mercy Sunday we are reminded of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska and her experience of the presence of Jesus and her trust in him, along with the reminder that we should also place our trust in him who is worthy of our trust.

Interestingly, this Sunday after Easter used to be known as Low Sunday. I looked up the reasons and learned that the name had to do with the fact that Easter is the "highest" feast of our year but also that church attendance tends to go down after Easter. Interesting. What can we do about that?

However, I think today's gospel can also help us consider the theme of divine mercy. Our Mass readings are usually arranged in a three year cycle, but on this Sunday we always hear from John's gospel about the story of "Doubting Thomas." The disciples experience the Risen Lord but Thomas isn't with them. When they tell him about the event, he voices his doubts, earning him the nickname. Later he has the experience they all had and hears Jesus say that those who haven't actually seen the Risen Lord but still believe are called blessed.

Think about it. How many of us who call ourselves believers have actually seen the Risen Lord? At the risk of sounding skeptical, I'm guessing the number is somewhere less than one. Yet somehow, even though our eyes haven't had the pleasure of seeing him, we do believe. Sounds pretty simple but, in reality, there's a beauty in that kind of faith that defies reason and logic. I guess that means that we who believe, at least as far as Jesus is concerned, are blessed.

Can you feel the divine mercy in it? Blessed by the Lord because we have put our faith in him even though we've never actually seen him with our eyes!

Jesus I trust in you.
