Deacon Jeff's Corner

My dear friends, we have now arrived at the most holy week of the year for us as Catholic Christians. It is so appropriately named!

Holy Week should be a week like no other in our calendar year. Many optional activities, as well as conveniences could (should) be suspended this week. Our prayer lives, even if they have changed for the better in this Lenten season, can be turned up a bit more this special week. If you haven't experienced the Sacrament of Reconciliation this season, it should be a part of your priority list this week.

More than anything, I would like every one of you to consider celebrating the Triduum with us here at Prince of Peace. The Triduum is so named because the first three letters – "Tri" – mean three. In this case, the "three" are days: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Please allow me to explain further.

The Triduum is, in essence, one Mass. It begins on Holy Thursday, which is the celebration of the Last Supper Jesus had with his apostles. It is the event from which the Eucharist was born, where Jesus gave them bread and said, "This is my body" and wine, saying "This is my blood". This was not metaphorical language as some might suggest, but Jesus giving them his actual body and blood in the form of bread and wine. It is what is represented every time we come to Mass! Holy Thursday ends in silence with the entire altar being stripped.

Good Friday is a continuation of the prior evening and begins and ends in silence. It is NOT a Mass, but rather a service; a remembrance of the horrible suffering and death Jesus experienced for every sin we have ever and will ever commit. It is a solemn, but very powerful service.

Holy Saturday begins in darkness. Jesus is in the tomb. But the light begins with a small fire, lighting the Easter candle which is processed into church. From this one light, everyone in attendance is given a candle that is lit from the Easter candle. Suddenly, the church is filled with the light of Christ, who is risen from the dead! Lights come on, the Gloria is sung amidst bells ringing in celebration, and our catechumens and candidates are brought into full communion in the Catholic Church!

Celebrating these three days will change your life and make the Easter season so much more meaningful. Please try to celebrate with us!

Deacon Jeff

Making Space for Jesus

Today, Palm Sunday, we are embarking on the holiest week in our Church year, the celebration of Jesus' passion, death, and Resurrection. Did our Lenten journey open us to a greater understanding of the Passion (Jesus' love, and suffering for us) and help us grow. Are we ready for Holy Week? Have we made space in our hearts and lives for Jesus?

In the second reading, Paul talks about 'the self-emptying' of Christ, something that is required of us to bring us to the kingdom of God with Him. Jesus humbled himself being both human and divine for us, as well as His awareness of what was to come on the cross for the forgiveness of our sins. What "self-emptying" occurred in you this Lenten Season? Did you make space for Jesus?

Were you ever like:

Simon to someone, carrying the heavy load, their cross when they couldn't anymore.

Veronica, wiping the face of Jesus, showing compassion supporting others with helping hands.

Joseph of Arimathea, giving his tomb to Jesus, sharing his love of others and wealth with those less fortunate.

The woman with the perfumed oil, costing a year's salary and giving to another person in appreciation for what they have done.

Peter, having your faith shaken out of fear, denying Jesus three times.

Judas, betraying others.

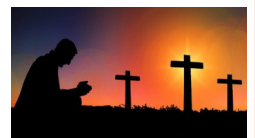

The crowd, yelling crucify him (them, i.e. migrants, politicians, social status).

Jesus experienced the depths of human suffering and was totally faithful to his mission, to die for our sins; Jesus, deepen our appreciation of the great sacrifice 'You' made on our behalf.

THE SPEAKERS

Danielle Faust and Alecia Koenig were born and raised about 5 miles apart in the townships of Meeme and Liberty in Manitowoc County, WI. With three siblings each, and homes near extended family, both women have fond childhood memories. Spending time at the creek, playing barefoot outside, and exploring the woods and fields are just a few of the things they enjoyed about country living.

Growing up rurally taught both women the importance of serving others, working hard, and giving thanks for and respect to the blessings God provides. Danielle and Alecia, along with their husbands and children, each steward their own homesteads, where they raise animals, tend their ever-expanding gardens, and practice butchering and food preservation. They are increasingly drawn into God's rhythms of rural living and His designs for rural community.

Though they began their friendship at very different points in their own faith journeys, both are now devout Catholics. As members of Holy Trinity Parish in School Hill, they volunteer their time in various ways. They homeschool, homestead, and are blessed to be living rurally as neighbors.
